

Mrs. Chapman.

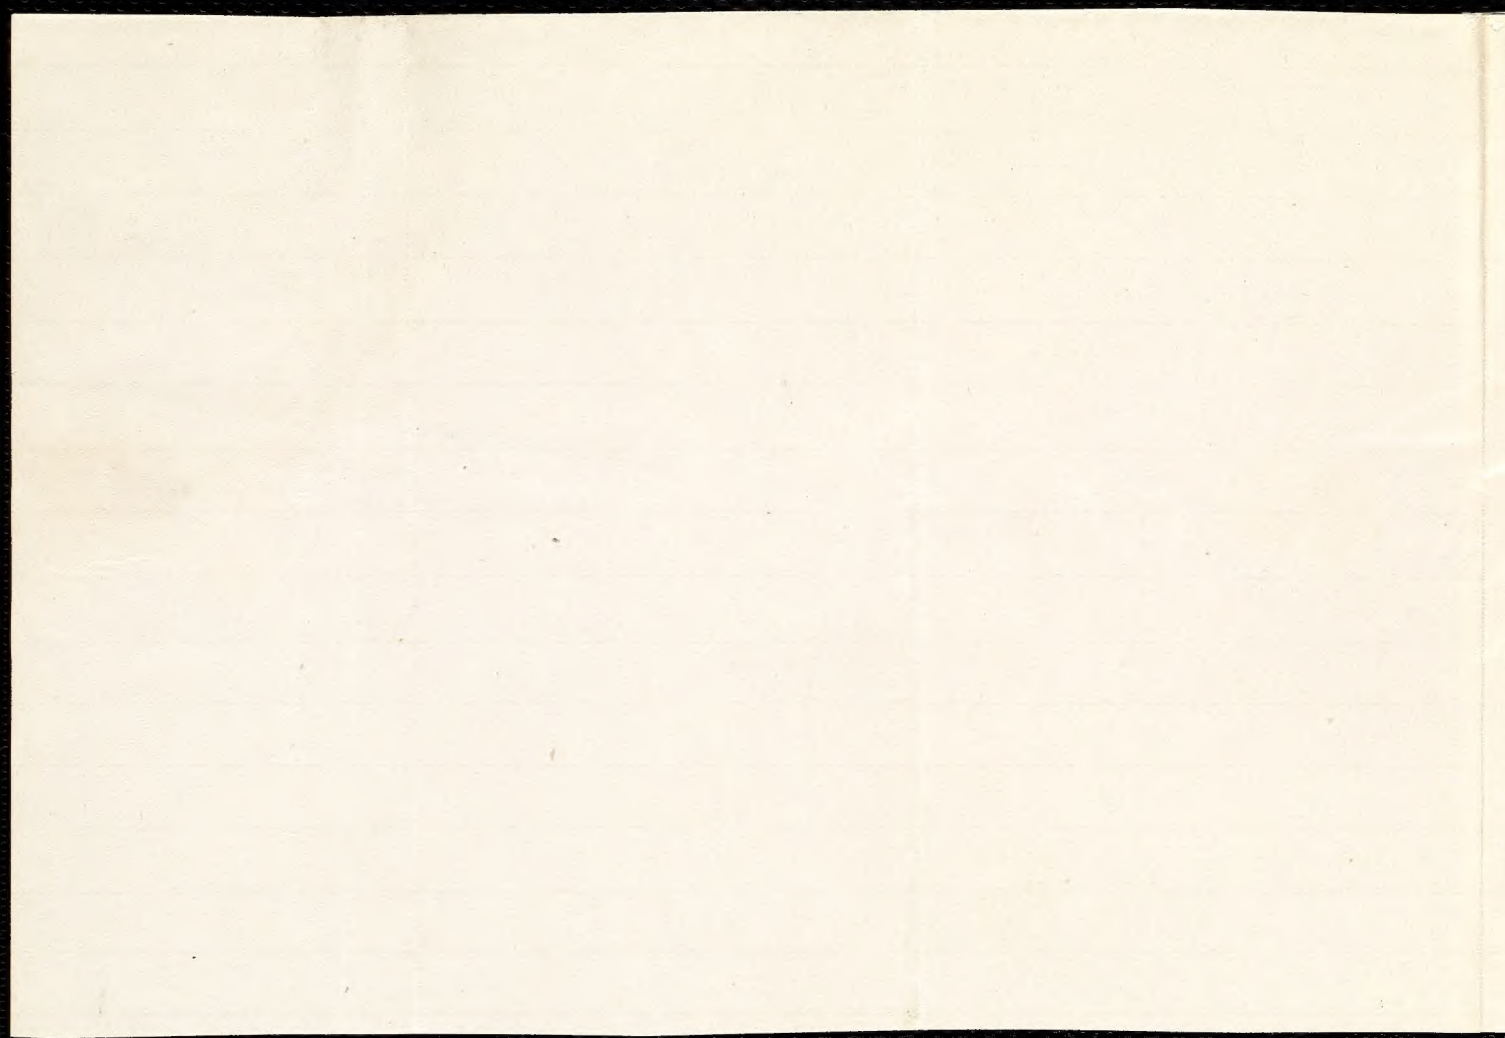

Dear Madam,

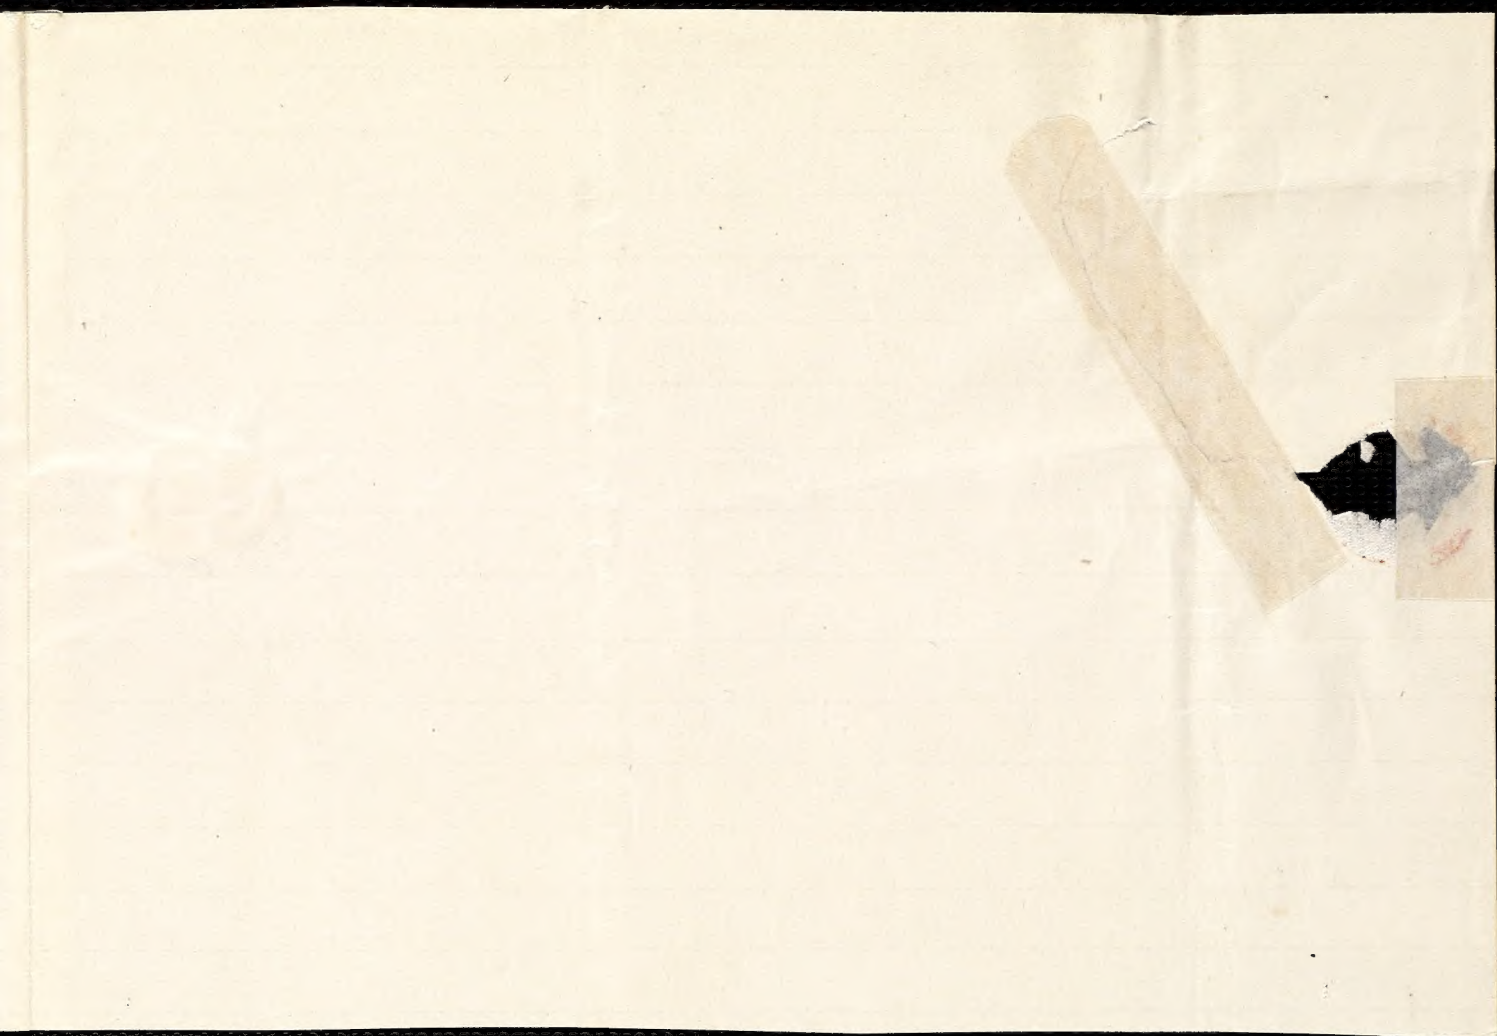

Without apology,
you will allow a personal stranger to say to you, that the spirit-stirring cry of 'No union with Slaveholders' has found an echo in the hearts of two or three individuals in the town of Hill, N.H.: this accompanying faint expression of which, should you deem worthy,
you will please cause to reserberate in the cause of Freedom.

Yours for the Oppressed.

M. H. Watson.

Hill, Dec. 22. '45.
